

BHA Board Member Role Description

Independent Director (Performance)

Type of role: Independent Director (Performance)

Responsible to: Chair and Board of Directors of the company

As an independent Director, the applicant should not hold any role, paid or unpaid, in the England Handball Association or Scottish Handball Association.

About the British Handball Association

The British Handball Association ('BHA') is the governing body for high performance international handball in the UK. It is responsible for the Great Britain national teams at all age groups, as well as elite coaching.

The England Handball Association and Scottish Handball Association are the BHA's sole members, and are responsible for the grassroots development of the sport, as well as national and regional league and cup competitions, in their respective countries.

Fiduciary Duties

- To act as a Director of the BHA in the best interests of the company, with honesty and in good faith towards its members, employees, principal funding partners, sponsors and of the communities within which the BHA operates
- To use such personal and professional skills together with such contacts, experience and judgement as s/he may possess with integrity and independence to optimise both the short-term and the long-term performance of the BHA
- To play a full part in enabling the Board to arrive at balanced and objective decisions in the performance of its agreed role and functions, in line with the BHA Articles of Association
- To ensure that the objectives of the company, as agreed by the Board, are fully, promptly and properly carried out
- To act in the way s/he considers, in good faith, would be most likely to promote the success of the company for the benefit of its members as a whole

Functions

The key functions of the Independent Director (Performance) are:

- To act as the Board Member with specific responsibility for strategic oversight of the Performance and National Teams Portfolio for the BHA, in line with the needs of the sport, including:

- elite athlete support;
- athlete development pathway including talent identification;
- selection of national teams;
- international competitions;
- elite coach pathways and development; and
- liaison with any equivalent role in the England and Scottish Handball Associations.
- To chair meetings of the Performance Group
- To assist the Chairman and Board to recruit and appoint appropriately qualified members and persons, from both within and outside the sport, to support the development of the Performance Pathway and National Teams
- To work with colleagues to implement an action plan to deliver a performance pathway for the BHA
- To report to the BHA Board on progress and any other issues which may arise within the portfolio
- To represent the BHA at relevant meetings, conferences and/or other events, as may arise from time to time
